THE DESIRE OF AGES

Simon and Schuster Volume 3 of the 'Conflict of the Ages' book series, 'The Desire of Ages,' covers the life and ministry of Jesus. This key Seventh Day Adventist text explains in detail the SDA understanding of the conflict between God and Satan and their understanding of the Bible and much of world history. White wrote the series based on her research of other authors and special information which she claimed to receive through visions from God. The books thus include unique insights and concepts not found in other works of the time.

THE DESIRE OF AGES

THE CONFLICT OF THE AGES ILLUSTRATED IN THE LIFE OF CHRIST

"The Desire of Ages (Volume 3 of the Conflict of the Ages series) is Ellen White's classic on the life of Jesus—the One who stands at the center of all human history. No one else has had such a profound influence on Planet Earth as Jesus Christ. In this book the author does not set forth the events of Jesus' life in strict chronological order, but she presents Him as the One who can satisfy the deepest yearnings of the human heart. She presents the divine beauty of the life of the Savior, the love of God as revealed in His Son. New and glorious light flashes from many familiar passages of Scripture. Follow Jesus in these pages from His birth in Bethlehem's stable to His death on the cross, His glorious resurrection, and triumphant return to heaven." -- Goodreads.com.

KEYS TO HAPPINESS

BY ELLEN G. WHITE

Keys to Happiness is published, under many titles, (including Steps to Christ and Happiness Digest) in more than 135 languages and has sold more than 50 million copies. Every human heart has a deep desire for the eternal. We all know that we are only passing through this world. Is this life all there is? If there is eternal life beyond the grave, how can we know it? More importantly, how can we secure it? This book will answer the most important question at the heart and soul of humanity. That question is, "Why are we here and what purpose do we serve?"

CONFLICT OF THE AGES (THE COMPLETE SERIES)

Collected here in one oversized omnibus edition are all five of the books that compromise Ellen G. White's masterpiece:

The conflict of the ages series. This is the greatest story ever told. This 850+ page book chronicles the struggle between Satan and Jesus Christ. It starts before the world was created and continues on until the final victory and the destruction and rebirth of the world. Inspiring! Collected in this edition are The Story of Patriarchs and Prophets, The Story of Prophets and Kings, The Desire of Ages, The Acts of the Apostles, and The Great Controversy Between Christ and Satan.

THE DESIRE OF AGES

THE DEVOTIONAL CLASSIC ON THE LIFE OF CHRIST

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY

GENERAL PRESS Beginning with the destruction of Jerusalem and continuing through the persecutions of Christians in the Roman Empire, the apostasy of the Dark Ages, the shining light of the Reformation, and the worldwide religious awakening of the nineteenth century, this volume traces the conflict into the future, to the Second Coming of Jesus and the glories of the earth made new. In this concluding volume, the author powerfully points out the principles involved in the impending conflict and how each person can stand firmly for God and His truth.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

Jazzybee Verlag The fifth book of the New Testament has been known from ancient times as The Acts of the Apostles; but this title cannot be found in the book itself. One of the earliest manuscripts, the Codex Sinaiticus, gives as the title the simple word Acts, with no mention of the apostles. There is a reason for this. Acts was intended to be more than a brief history of the service rendered by the twelve disciples, much more than the principal events in the lifework of its four leading characters, Peter, James, John, and Paul. The Acts of the Apostles was one of the last books written by Ellen G. White. It was published a few years before her death. It is one of the most illuminating volumes that came from her prolific pen. The average reader will find in it light for Christian witnessing. The message of the book is up to date, and its relevancy is reflected in the effort of the author to show that the twentieth century will witness a bestowal of spiritual power exceeding that of Pentecost. The work of the gospel is not to close with a lesser display of the Holy Spirit's power than marked its beginning.

EDUCATION

DigiCat Education is Ellen G. White's classic work on the principles of Christian education. Ellen G. White (1827-1915) played a fundamental role in defining the rationale, philosophy, and objectives of Seventh-day Adventist education.

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY BETWEEN CHRIST AND SATAN

Library of Alexandria Before the entrance of sin, Adam enjoyed open communion with his Maker; but since man separated himself from God by transgression, the human race has been cut off from this high privilege. By the plan of redemption, however, a way has been opened whereby the inhabitants of the earth may still have connection with heaven. God has communicated with men by His Spirit, and divine light has been imparted to the world by revelations to His chosen servants. "Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." 2 Peter 1:21. During the first twenty-five hundred years of human history, there was no written revelation. Those who had been taught of God, communicated their knowledge to others, and it was handed down from father to son, through successive generations. The preparation of the written word began in the time of Moses. Inspired revelations were then embodied in an inspired book. This work continued during the long period of sixteen hundred years,—from Moses, the historian of creation and the law, to John, the recorder of the most sublime truths of the gospel. The Bible points to God as its author; yet it was written by human hands; and in the varied style of its different books it presents the characteristics of the several writers. The truths revealed are all "given by inspiration of God" (2 Tim. 3:16); yet they are expressed in the words of men. The Infinite One by His Holy Spirit has shed light into the minds and hearts of His servants. He has given dreams and visions, symbols and figures; and those to whom the truth was thus revealed, have themselves embodied the thought in human language. The ten commandments were spoken by God Himself, and were written by His own hand. They are of divine, and not of human composition. But the Bible, with its God-given truths expressed in the language of men, presents a union of the divine and the human. Such a union existed in the nature of Christ, who was the Son of God and the Son of man. Thus it is true of the Bible, as it was of Christ, that "the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us." John 1:14. Written in different ages, by men who differed widely in rank and occupation, and in mental and spiritual endowments, the books of the Bible present a wide contrast in style, as well as a diversity in the nature of the subjects unfolded. Different forms of expression are employed by different writers; often the same truth is more strikingly presented by one than by another. And as several writers present a subject under varied aspects and relations, there may appear, to the superficial, careless, or prejudiced reader, to be discrepancy or contradiction, where the thoughtful, reverent student, with clearer insight, discerns the underlying harmony. As presented through different individuals, the truth is brought out in its varied aspects. One writer is more strongly impressed with one phase of the subject; he grasps those points that harmonize with his experience or with his power of perception and appreciation; another seizes upon a different phase; and each, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, presents what is most forcibly impressed upon his own mind—a different aspect of the truth in each, but a perfect harmony through all. And the truths thus revealed unite to form a perfect whole, adapted to meet the wants of men in all the circumstances and experiences of life. God has been pleased to communicate His truth to the world by human agencies, and He Himself, by His Holy Spirit, qualified men and enabled them to do this work. He guided the mind in the selection of what to speak and what to write. The treasure was intrusted to earthen vessels, yet it is, none the less, from Heaven. The testimony is conveyed through the imperfect expression of human language, yet it is the testimony of God; and the obedient, believing child of God beholds in it the glory of a divine power, full of grace and truth.

THE LIFE OF CHRIST ...

CONFLICT OF THE AGES

THE DESIRE OF AGES

The books follow the Biblical history of the world, with special focus on the conflict between Christ and Satan. The series starts with the pre-creation rebellion of Satan in Heaven, then moves on to the creation of the earth, the fall of Adam and Eve into sin, the Old Testament, the birth and ministry of Jesus until His ascension, then the early Christian church, the Dark Ages, the Protestant reformation, the last days of earth's history, the second coming of Christ, the millennium, and the destruction of sin and finally the recreation of earth and God's kingdom with man for eternity. This progression explains in detail the SDA understanding of the conflict between Christ and Satan and their understanding of the Bible and much of world history. She wrote the books based on her research of other authors and special information which she claimed to receive through visions from God. The books thus include unique insights and concepts not found in other works of the time.

Evangelist ministry (e-mail: digitalinspiration8@gmail.com). The Desire of Ages by Ellen G. White is one of the most widely acclaimed and distributed volumes ever written on the life of Christ. It covers the life and ministry of Jesus Christ as recorded in the four gospels, and referred to by all of Scripture. When one asks "Who is this Jesus?" The response is: "Adam will tell you, It is the seed of the woman that shall bruise the serpent's head. "Ask Abraham, he will tell you, It is 'Melchizedek King of Salem, ' King of Peace. Genesis 14:18. "Jacob will tell you, He is Shiloh of the tribe of Judah. "Isaiah will tell you, 'Immanuel, ' 'Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.' Isaiah 7:14; 9:6. "Jeremiah will tell you, The Branch of David, 'the Lord our Righteousness.' Jeremiah 23:6. "Daniel will tell you, He is the Messiah. "Hosea will tell you, He is 'the Lord God of hosts; the Lord is His memorial.' Hosea 12:5. "John the Baptist will tell you, He is 'the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.' John 1:29. "The great Jehovah has proclaimed from His throne, 'This is My beloved Son.' Matthew 3:17. "We, His disciples, declare, This is Jesus, the Messiah, the Prince of life, the Redeemer of the world. "And the prince of the powers of darkness acknowledges Him, saying, 'I know Thee who Thou art, the Holy One of God.' Mark 1:24." The Desire of Ages, 578, 579. This is the heart-molding story of Jesus of Nazareth, the promised Seed of the Woman which was to conquer and eventually destroy the adversary of mankind-the serpent, the devil. This is the story of the central theme of all Scripture, the account of the life and ministry of the long-looked-for, and yet misunderstood and rejected by most, Messiah, Emmanuel-God with us. TESTIMONIES FOR THE CHURCH

CreateSpace This is the eighth volume of "Testimonies for the Church," an influential nine-book set of books from the pen of Ellen G. White. Nearly 5000 pages in all, the entire set contains letters, articles, sermons, records of visions, and instruction regarding the everyday affairs of life. Specifically targeted at members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, the Testimonies found their genesis in 1855 when a question arose about how best to circulate Ellen White's visions. After some discussion, it was voted that the visions would be distributed in tract form to the entire body of believers. This method of distribution proved so successful that, by 1864, Mrs. White had produced ten consecutively numbered pamphlets. These pamphlets contained general counsel to the church at large. They also contained specific counsel to individuals, since Ellen White realized that the instruction to one person would help others in similar circumstances. Although the earliest pamphlets went out of print, in 1883 the church standardized the messages—which by then had grown into many more communications—into a nine-volume set of Spirit of Prophecy counsels. This set, which contains spiritual commentary of a general nature along with many letters of intimate instruction to members of the church during Ellen White's time, has become a staple of Adventist literature.

DESIRE OF AGES

NEWSPRINT

You see it all around you every day. You may even feel it in the turmoil within you. The desperate tug-of-war between love and selfishness. The seesaw battle between the principle of giving and the creed of getting. Before the great universal war began, only love reigned. And when the war is over, only love will reign again. But in this long and bitter interim, the conflict rages again. Is selfishness the better way? Would the universe be a better place if each of us spent our energies looking out for Number One? Or is happiness the result of looking out for others? In The Desire of Ages, these two great principles are most clearly revealed to the universe. On the one hand, Jesus Christ comes to this earth in person to live and love—to show what God is really like. On the other, Satan exhibits the ultimate outworking of his rule of selfishness as he goads his followers into murdering his Creator. Here, in stark contrast, you will see the issues of this very real battle between good and evil. And here in this book, you will be challenged to make a choice between them—cover.

LOVE UNDER FIRE

LUCIFER - HOW ART THOU FALLEN?

TEACH Services, Inc. This compilation from the Spirit of Prophecy (the writings of Ellen G. White) covers the history of Lucifer from his creation to his fall, thru his warfare on earth, down to his final destruction. The purpose of this book is not to exalt Satan, but rather to show his character works, and methods as he wars against God, Christ, and the Church. As the Apostle Paul warned, "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices" (2 Corinthians 2:11), we are vulnerable in our ignorance. God's people need to be aware of the serpent's cunning, so as not to fall under his power and influence. That knowledge alone, however, will not keep us safe. We must "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." (Ephesians 6:11) The tremendous amount of material on this subject presented a challenge in compiling that which could tell the high points of the history, provide the best possible lessons and warnings for God's people, extend hope and encouragement for these last days (when Satan and his hosts are making "war with the remnant"), while keeping it within the confines of the cover of this small volume. Our hope and prayer is that we have succeeded in this challenge, presenting the reader with a priceless aid in preparation for earth's final conflict, as well as the day-to-day trials and struggles with the powers of darkness. The Lord be magnified!
